MEMORANDUM FOR: Intelligence Consumers Survey Working Group

SUBJECT: Minutes of 29 January Meeting

1. The meeting focused on the two points of the agenda: A consideration of the purpose of this year's survey, and identification of the individuals to be surveyed. [redacted]

2. Some of the members observed that the purpose as expressed in the prospectus seemed similar in thought and intent to that embodied in the original survey. [redacted] inquired as to who in the upper circles of the Intelligence Community had seen or approved the statement of purpose. I told him that the Acting Chairman of the National Intelligence Council had reviewed it and that the Chairman of the Intelligence Producers Council had helped to frame it into its present form. The group asked for a little more time to consider the purpose. [redacted]

3. We had a more lengthy discussion of the target population for the survey. [redacted] reported that there were three criteria for selecting people in the first survey: the individuals needed to be de facto policy makers, they needed to be at the deputy under secretary level or its equivalent, and they needed to receive intelligence from more than one source. To drop a notch lower, according to him, would result in a manifold expansion of the survey population and would target many who are not really policymakers. [redacted] asked if we couldn't direct our survey at both levels and then compare results. The consensus was that each organization would turn in a list of their top policymaking consumers and then wrestle with the issue of numbers and levels. [redacted]

4. It was agreed that the IPC Staff should receive all lists by Friday 12 February and that our next meeting would be held on Friday 19 February at 1345 in room 6N02. Our purpose will be to refine our list and then begin to consider the survey questions themselves. [redacted]

5. The distribution list shows the attendees as well as action officers from other organizations so you can communicate with each other. [redacted]
